X. Investigate and Prosecute Claims

42. Subject to the requirement, in Section VI above, that leave of this Court is required to resume or commence certain litigation, the Receiver is authorized, empowered and directed to investigate, prosecute, institute, defend, appears in, intervene in or otherwise participate in, compromise, and/or adjust actions in any state, federal or foreign court or proceeding of any kind as may in his discretion, and in consultation with Commission counsel, be advisable or proper to recover and/or conserve Receivership Assets or that the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to carry out the Receiver's powers and duties under this Order.

43. Subject to his obligation to expend receivership funds in a reasonable and cost-effective manner, the Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to investigate the manner in which the financial and business affairs of the Receivership Defendants were conducted and (after obtaining leave of this Court) to institute such actions and legal proceedings, for the benefit and on behalf of the Receivership Estate, as the Receiver deems necessary and appropriate, also may seek, among other legal and equitable relief, the imposition of constructive trusts, disgorgement of profits, asset turnover, avoidance of fraudulent transfers, rescission and restitution, collection of debts, and such other relief from this Court as may be necessary to enforce this Order. Where appropriate, the Receiver should provide prior notice to counsel for the Commission before commencing investigations and/or actions.

44. The Receiver hereby holds, and is therefore empowered to waive, all privileges, including the attorney-client privilege, held by all entity Receivership Defendants.

45. The Receiver has a continuing duty to ensure that there are no conflicts of interest between the Receiver, his Retained Personnel (as that term is defined below), and the Receivership Estate.

XI. Repatriation of Foreign Assets and Documents

46. The Receiver shall take such steps as are necessary to repatriate to the territory of the United States of America all Receivership Assets that are located in a country other than the United States and are held by or for Defendants or are under Defendants' direct or indirect control, jointly, severally, or individually.

47. Immediately and without delay, following the entry of this Order, and in no event later than within three (3) business days following entry of this Order, Jerome Cohen and Shaun Cohen shall provide the Receiver and the Commission with a full accounting of all assets, including Receivership Assets, that are located outside of the United States that have been transferred to the United States and are held by or for any Defendant or are under any Defendants' direct or indirect control, jointly, severally, or individually, including the addresses and names of any foreign or domestic financial institution or other entity holding the assets, along with the account numbers and balances.

48. Jerome Cohen and Shaun Cohen shall take all steps necessary and appropriate to prevent any transfer, disposition, or dissipation whatsoever of any assets, including Receivership Assets, located outside the United States.

49. Immediately and without delay, following entry of this Order, Jerome Cohen and Shaun Cohen shall provide the Receiver and the Commission access to Defendants' records and documents held by financial institutions or other entities outside the United States, by signing and delivering to the Receiver and Commission's counsel a Consent to Release of Financial Records. In furtherance of the foregoing repatriation provisions, the Receivership Defendants, their successors and assigns, and their officers, agents, servants, employees, affiliates, and attorneys, and all persons and entities in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, are hereby enjoined from taking any action, directly or indirectly, which may result in the encumbrance or dissipation of foreign Receivership Assets, or in the hindrance of the repatriation required by this Order, including but not limited to:

- A. sending any statement, letter, fax, e-mail or wire transmission, or telephoning or engaging in any other act, directly or indirectly, that results in a determination by a foreign trustee or other entity that a "duress" event has occurred under the terms of a foreign trust agreement until such time that all Receivership Assets have been fully repatriated pursuant to this Order; and
- B. notifying any trustee, trust protector, or other agent of any foreign trust or other related entities of either the existence of this Order, or of the fact that repatriation is required pursuant to court order, until such time that all Receivership Assets have been fully repatriated pursuant to this Order.

XII. Interference with Repatriation

50. Defendants are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from taking any action, directly or indirectly, that may result in the encumbrance or dissipation of foreign assets, including Receivership Assets, or in the hindrance of the repatriation required by the preceding Section XI of this Order, including but not limited to:

- A. Sending any statement, letter, facsimile, email or wire transmission, or telephoning, or engaging in any other act, directly or indirectly, that results in a determination by a foreign trustee or other entity that a "duress" event has occurred under the terms of a foreign trust agreement, until such time that the assets have been fully repatriated pursuant to the preceding Section XI of this Order; and

B. Notifying any trustee, protector, or other agent of any foreign trust or other related entities of either the existence of this Order or the fact that repatriation is required pursuant to a Court Order, until such time as assets, including Receivership Assets, have been fully repatriated pursuant the preceding Section XI of this Order.

XIII. Bankruptcy Filing

51. The Receiver may seek authorization of this Court to file voluntary petitions for relief under Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) for the Receivership Defendants, or any of them. If a Receivership Defendant is placed in bankruptcy proceedings, the Receiver may become, and may be empowered to operate the Receivership Estate as, a debtor-in-possession. In such a situation, the Receiver shall have all of the powers and duties as provided a debtor-in-possession under the Bankruptcy Code to the exclusion of any other person or entity. Pursuant to Paragraph 4 above, the Receiver is vested with management authority for all entity Receivership Defendants and may therefore file and manage a Chapter 11 petition.

52. The provisions of Section VII above bar any person or entity, other than the Receiver, from placing any of the Receivership Defendants in bankruptcy proceedings.

XIV. Liability of Receiver

53. Until further Order of this Court, the Receiver shall not be required to post bond or give an undertaking of any type in connection with his fiduciary obligations in this matter.

54. The Receiver may choose, engage and employ attorneys, accountants, appraisers, and any other independent contractors and technical specialists, including, but not limited to, securities traders, registered representatives, financial or business advisers, liquidating agents, real estate agents, forensic experts, property managers, brokers, traders, and auctioneers (collectively, "Retained Personnel") as the Receiver deems advisable or necessary in the performance of the Receiver's duties and responsibilities under the authority granted by this Order. The Receiver and his Retained Personnel, acting within the scope of such agency are entitled to rely on all outstanding rules of law and Orders of this Court and shall not be liable to anyone for their own good faith compliance with any order, rule, law, judgment, or decree. In no event shall the Receiver or Retained Personnel be liable to anyone for their good faith compliance with their duties and responsibilities as Receiver or Retained Personnel, nor shall the Receiver or Retained Personnel be liable to anyone for any actions taken or omitted by them except upon a finding by this Court that they acted or failed to act as a result of malfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence, or in reckless disregard of their duties.

55. No action shall be filed or proceeding commenced against the Receiver or the Retained Personnel arising out of or in any way related to this receivership or their duties or work performed in connection with the receivership without obtaining an order from the Court based upon a showing of good cause. Nothing contained in this Order, nor the grant or exercise of any powers provided for herein by the Receiver shall cause said Receiver to be considered a past or present owner, operator or other potentially responsible or liable party pursuant to any provision of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. § 9601, et seq.; the Hazardous Site Response Act ("HSRA"), O.C.G.A. § 12-8-90, et seq.; or incur liability based on ownership or operation of the Receivership Assets pursuant to any other statutory, regulatory, common law or strict liability theory. Furthermore, to the extent hazardous substances, wastes or constituents are known or discovered to be present upon the Receivership Assets, the Receiver shall not be considered to be in any direct or indirect contractual relationship with any party responsible for such substances, wastes or constituents pursuant to CERCLA and/or HSRA, and shall instead be considered to be acting solely in a "fiduciary capacity" with respect to the Receivership Assets, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 107(n) of CERCLA and §12-8-92(7)(C) of HSRA.

56. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over any action filed against the Receiver or Retained Personnel based upon acts or omissions committed in their representative capacities.

57. In the event the Receiver decides to resign, the Receiver shall first give written notice to the Commission's counsel of record and the Court of its intention, and the resignation shall not be effective until the Court appoints a successor. The Receiver shall then follow such instructions as the Court may provide.

XV. Insurance

58. Given the urgency to appoint a Receiver, the Court recognizes that the Receiver accepts this appointment without time for independent verification that appropriate insurance is in place on the property or that appropriate liability or other insurance is in place to protect the Receivership Assets and the Receivership Estate. Accordingly, the Court acknowledges that the Receiver has no responsibility or liability until such time as he can confirm that such insurance is in place or acquire the appropriate insurance. The Receiver shall make it a priority to verify or obtain insurance coverage immediately upon this Order Appointing Receiver being entered; however, the Plaintiff, Receivership Defendants, and Court acknowledge there may be a gap of time before such insurance may be in place to properly protect the assets of the estate and any employees of the estate, and that the Receiver has no responsibility or liability until such time as he/it has notified the Court by filing a notice that insurance is in place.

59. Jerome Cohen and Shaun Cohen are ordered to immediately provide the Receiver with all available insurance information for both existing and prior insurance policies. This includes all applications, policies, riders, correspondence, endorsements, claims and other information. Jerome Cohen and Shaun Cohen are ordered: (1) to advise the insurance agent(s) of this Order in writing, (2) designate all authority over the policies to the Receiver, and (3) take no action with regard to terminating or modifying existing insurance policies.

60. Any insurance broker, agent, carrier, or underwriter is specifically ordered by the Court to cooperate with the Receiver by timely furnishing the following: (1) copies of all insurance policies including any riders, endorsements and applications with respect to policies related to the Receivership Estate, (2) loss history for five consecutive years or for as long as insurance has been in force if less than five years, (3) premium payment history including current status, and (4) any correspondence with insurance agents, brokers and companies. Policies shall be endorsed by the Defendants naming the Receiver as Named Insured and Loss Payee effective the date of this Order as appropriate to the type of coverage, and evidence of this policy endorsement shall be promptly supplied to the Receiver.

61. The Receiver is hereby authorized to engage insurance brokers and consultants as necessary to properly insure the Receivership Assets

XVI. Recommendations and Reports

62. The Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to develop a plan for the fair, reasonable, and efficient recovery and liquidation of all remaining, recovered, and recoverable Receivership Assets (the "Liquidation Plan").

63. Within ninety (90) days of the entry date of this Order, the Receiver shall file the Liquidation Plan in the above-captioned action, with service copies to counsel of record.

64. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Receiver shall file and serve a full report and accounting of each Receivership Estate (the "Quarterly Status Report”), reflecting (to the best of the Receiver’s knowledge as of the period covered by the report) the existence, value, and location of all Receivership Assets, and of the extent of liabilities, both those claimed to exist by others and those the Receiver believes to be legal obligations of the Receivership Estate.

65. The Quarterly Status Report shall contain the following:

- A. A summary of the operations of the Receiver;
- B. The amount of cash on hand, the amount and nature of accrued administrative expenses, and the amount of unencumbered funds in the estate;
- C. A schedule of all the Receiver’s receipts and disbursements (attached as Exhibit A to the Quarterly Status Report), with one column for the quarterly period covered and a second column for the entire duration of the receivership;
- D. A description of all known Receivership Assets, including approximate or actual valuations, anticipated or proposed dispositions, and reasons for retaining assets where no disposition is intended;
- E. A description of liquidated and unliquidated claims held by the Receivership Estate, including the need for forensic and/or investigatory resources; approximate valuations of claims; and anticipated or proposed methods of enforcing such claims (including likelihood of success in: (i) reducing the claims to judgment; and, (ii) collecting such judgments);
- F. A list of all known creditors with their addresses and the amounts of their claims;
- G. The status of Creditor Claims Proceedings, after such proceedings have been commenced; and,
- H. The Receiver's recommendations for a continuation or discontinuation of the receivership and the reasons for the recommendations.

66. On the request of the Commission, the Receiver shall provide the Commission with any documentation that the Commission deems necessary to meet its reporting requirements, that is mandated by statute or Congress, or that is otherwise necessary to further the Commission's mission.

XVII. Fees, Expenses and Accountings

67. Subject to Paragraphs 68 – 74 immediately below, the Receiver need not obtain Court approval prior to the disbursement of Receivership Funds for expenses in the ordinary course of the administration and operation of the receivership. Further, prior Court approval is not required for payments of applicable federal, state or local taxes.

68. Subject to Paragraph 69 below, the Receiver is authorized to solicit persons and entities ("Retained Personnel") to assist him in carrying out the duties and responsibilities described in this Order. The Receiver shall not engage any Retained Personnel without first obtaining an Order of the Court authorizing such engagement.

69. The Receiver and Retained Personnel are entitled to reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estate as described in the "Billing Instructions for Receivers in Civil Actions Commenced by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission" (the "Billing Instructions") agreed to by the Receiver. Such compensation shall require the prior approval of the Court.

70. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Receiver and Retained Personnel shall apply to the Court for compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estate (the "Quarterly Fee Applications"). The Receiver may file a fee application at the end of September 2018, November 2018, and January 2019, which otherwise must comply with the requirements of this Order that are applicable to Quarterly Fee Applications. At least thirty (30) days prior to filing each Quarterly Fee Application with the Court, the Receiver will serve upon counsel for the Commission a complete copy of the proposed Application, together with all exhibits and relevant billing information in a format to be provided by

Commission staff.

71. All Quarterly Fee Applications will be interim and will be subject to cost benefit and final reviews at the close of the receivership. At the close of the receivership, the Receiver will file a final fee application, describing in detail the costs and benefits associated with all litigation and other actions pursued by the Receiver during the course of the receivership.

72. Quarterly Fee Applications may be subject to a holdback in the amount of 20% of the amount of fees and expenses for each application filed with the Court. The total amounts held back during the course of the receivership will be paid out at the discretion of the Court as part of the final fee application submitted at the close of the receivership.

73. Each Quarterly Fee Application shall:

- A. Comply with the terms of the Billing Instructions agreed to by the Receiver; and,
- B. Contain representations (in addition to the Certification required by the Billing Instructions) that: (i) the fees and expenses included therein were incurred in the best interests of the Receivership Estate; and, (ii) with the exception of the Billing Instructions, the Receiver has not entered into any agreement, written or oral, express or implied, with any person or entity concerning the amount of compensation paid or to be paid from the Receivership Estate, or any sharing thereof.

74. At the close of the Receivership, the Receiver shall submit a Final Accounting, in a format to be provided by Commission staff, as well as the Receiver's final application for compensation and expense reimbursement.
